Rosemount Estate collects 14 awards at 2012 Macquarie Group Sydney Royal Wine Show

Rosemount Estate has made a stellar start to the 2012 Australian wine show circuit achieving an 88% strike rate at the Macquarie Group Sydney Royal Wine Show this week. Despite over 2200 entries Rosemount Estate was awarded a Gold medal for our 2010 Rosemount Regional Showcase Robe Chardonnay in addition to 7 Silvers, and 6 Bronze medals.

Rosemount Chief Winemaker Matt Koch says: "I'm ecstatic with the result. To be recognised for our quality and consistency across our portfolio from our Flagships, through our Regional Tier to Diamond Label and Rosemount Blends is a great result. This is fantastic recognition for the entire Rosemount winemaking and viticulture team."

About the 2010 Rosemount Regional Showcase Robe Chardonnay:

The Rosemount Regional Showcase range of wines highlights Rosemount's viticulture excellence and winemaker emphasis on the regional expression of fruit from South Australian wine regions.

The 2010 Rosemount Regional Showcase Robe Chardonnay is light straw with subtle green hues. An excellent expression of regional Robe Chardonnay displaying luscious layers of nectarine, lemon cream and toasted almonds wrapped in a mouth-filling creamy texture across the palate.

The Rosemount Regional Showcase Robe Chardonnay 2010 is available exclusively at Dan Murphy stores nationally at RRP $19.99.
