ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

Update on Fires in Northern California

Treasury Wine Estates Limited (ASX:TWE) today provided the following update on the fires in Northern California.

TWE's focus is on ensuring all of its employees are safe and we are not sending people in harm's way. The local fire crews and authorities are doing their best to work on containing the fires.

At this stage, there is limited damage to TWE's infrastructures and sites, however the fires are ongoing and TWE still has limited access to all of its different assets.

The majority of TWE's vineyards and wineries are not presently in the direct fire zones.
