Treasury Wine Estates Achieves Stellar Results at the 2013 Dan Murphy's National Wine Show of Australia

Wines from the Treasury Wine Estates portfolio have claimed two Trophies, 19 Gold Medals and more than 100 medals overall at the 2013 Dan Murphy's National Wine Show of Australia.

Penfolds Bin 311 Chardonnay 2012 received two trophies and Top Gold at the Show. The Top Gold accolade was also awarded to Abel's Tempest Chardonnay Pinot Noir 2010, Leo Buring Riesling 2012, Penfolds Great Grandfather Rare Tawny, Saltram Mr Pickwick Rare Tawny and Wynns Messenger Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2010.

The Dan Murphy's National Wine Show of Australia is one of Australia's premier wine shows and invites entries from across the country in premium, commercial and mature classes for table, sparkling and fortified wines.

Treasury Wine Estates Chief Winemaker Mark Robertson congratulated winemaking, viticulture and support teams who work tirelessly to create these world class wines.

"While Treasury Wine Estates produces a diverse range of wines, the binding thread is the uncompromising commitment to quality. I know I speak for the entire Treasury Wine Estates team when I extend my sincere congratulations to everyone involved in creating these superb wines."
