Treasury Wine Estates stars at Royal Adelaide Wine Show

Wines from the Treasury Wine Estates (TWE) portfolio took out an outstanding 10 of the possible 24 trophies and 33 gold medals at the 2013 Royal Adelaide Wine Show, announced yesterday, with Barossa Icon Saltram and Yarra Valley's Coldstream Hills the stars of the show taking out the most coveted trophies.

The 2010 Saltram Mamre Brook Shiraz was named the Most Outstanding Red Wine in Show, while the Saltram No 1 Shiraz (2009, 2004 and 1996 vintages) won the Gramp, Hardy, Hill Smith Prize for Outstanding Wine of Provenance. This award assesses three vintages of a wine, with judges looking for a strong sense of style and regionality. The 2010 Saltram Mamre Brook Shiraz was also named Best Shiraz in Show, and Saltram Chief Winemaker Shavaughn Wells was recognised for Winemaker of the Most Outstanding Red Wine.

Coldstream Hills also dominated taking four Gold medals and its 2011 Reserve Chardonnay winning trophies for Most Outstanding White Wine in Show and Best Chardonnay in Show. Chief Winemaker Andrew Fleming received the prize for Winemaker of the Most Outstanding White Wine.

Treasury Wine Estates Chief Executive Officer Warwick Every-Burns was thrilled with the result, noting the breadth of varieties within the Treasury portfolio that won awards.

"From best red, best white, best sparkling, to best fortified trophies, when it comes to Australian wine of all styles in Australia you need look no further than the Treasury Wine Estates portfolio. It really is testament to the dedication of our winemakers and their teams and demonstrates that they are truly top of their class," he said.

Other trophies for Treasury included Australia's Premier House of Sparkling, Yellowglen, which won Best Sparkling Wine in Show and a Gold medal for its Exceptional Vintage XV Regional Piccadilly Sparkling 2004; Rosemount Estate which took the Best Red Wine under $20 award and Gold for its 2011 Rosemount District Traditional Red; while Baileys of Glenrowan demonstrated its strength in fortifieds with four gold medals and its Winemakers Selection Rare Muscat NV winning the trophy for Best Apera, Topaque or Muscat.

The Royal Adelaide Wine Show is one of the pre-eminent wine shows in Australia. The judges at the Royal Adelaide Wine Show assess the entries each year over four days based on colour and clarity, bouquet and palate.
