Treasury Wine Estates Stars at 2013 Royal Melbourne Wine Awards

Wines from across Treasury Wine Estates' (TWE) portfolio received outstanding accolades at last week's highly acclaimed Royal Melbourne Wine Awards. TWE collected more than 130 awards at the Melbourne event including four trophies and 22 gold medals for brands Abel's Tempest, Coldstream Hills, Devil's Lair, Matua Valley, Penfolds, Rosemount Estate, Saltram, Seppelt, Wolf Blass, Wynns Coonawarra Estate and Yellowglen.

Treasury Wine Estates Chief Winemaker, Mark Robertson said: "These outstanding awards are testament to our ongoing focus on quality across the TWE portfolio. This is a great reflection on the winemaking expertise at TWE and also on the diversity of our portfolio."

Four of TWE's wines stood out from the crowd for their collection of both a trophy and a gold medal. Rosemount Estate was awarded the Trophy for the Best Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot or Bordeaux Blend for the 2012 District Release McLaren Vale Cabernet Sauvignon and the Trophy for the Best Grenache, Rhone Varietal or Rhone Varietal Blend for the 2012 Flagships Grenache Shiraz Mataro [GSM]. Rosemount was also recognised with two wines out of the final six wines that were shortlisted for the highly coveted Jimmy Watson Memorial Trophy.

Coldstream Hills received the FIIG Securities Trophy for Best Sparkling for the 2009 Coldstream Hills Chardonnay Pinot Noir Sparkling. This tops off a big year for the wine, which was also recently awarded Best Sparkling Wine at the 2013 Royal Perth Wine Show and Best Sparkling Wine at the 2013 Yarra Valley Wine Show.

Devil's Lair's 2012 The Hidden Cave Cabernet Sauvignon Shiraz was awarded the Rural Finance Trophy for Best Shiraz Cabernet Sauvignon blend, in addition to the Gold medal already awarded to the 2012 Fifth Leg Shiraz.

The Royal Melbourne Wine Awards (RMWA) was established in 1884 by the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV) to promote excellence in Australian wine and winemaking practice. It is now one of Australia's most prestigious wine awards and attracts over 3000 entries each year competing for 22 trophies.
