Wine Advocate Scores Show the Power and Prestige of TWE Portfolio

2008 Penfolds Grange Shiraz Scores a Perfect 100 points

28 Wines Across 5 Brands Score 90+ Points

Wines from across the Treasury Wine Estates (TWE) portfolio have received outstanding acclamation in The Wine Advocate, one of the world's most influential wine publications. In addition to the inclusion of the 2008 Penfolds Grange Shiraz, with its 100 points score, no fewer than 27 wines from flagship TWE brands Penfolds, Rosemount, Wolf Blass and Wynns received scores of 90+.

Treasury Wine Estates CEO, David Dearie said: "These outstanding scores are testament to our ongoing focus on quality across the TWE portfolio. Whilst the 'perfect Grange' is due for release in May 2013 – we're delighted that many of these celebrated wines are available to our customers and consumers today, with others due for release over the coming weeks."

"We know that when The Wine Advocate speaks, wine lovers listen; so to receive so many 90+ scores provides us with an incredible opportunity to showcase our brands on a global scale."

Robert Parker was the first person to implement the 100 points rating system for wine, which has been carried forward by The Wine Advocate's current Editor in Chief, Lisa Perrotti-Brown.

In her review of the 2008 Penfolds Grange Shiraz, Lisa Perrotti-Brown states, "Deep purple-black in color, the 2008 Grange puts forward a very complex nose packed with aromas of mulberries, layers of baking spices, cloves and cinnamon with nuances of minced meat, anise, potpourri and whiffs of dried mint and chocolate. It is framed by firm, grainy tannins and a refreshing acid line before finishing very long with aniseed and lingering blackberry preserves notes. This is clearly a wonderfully opulent and a magic vintage for this label. Drink it from 2018 to 2035+."
